o official of the government would o point out that any naval or milipurely precautionary to safeguard foreign interests and could not be construed as having any connection with the Pan-American conference which is to be resumed in New York impshire is due largely to a fear that news of their coming reaching Vera Cruz ahead of the ships might secentuate the already serious situation existing there. Commoder Me Namee, the senior American naval officer on the gulf coast, cabled his today, to complete a program for bringing about a restoration of government in Mexico.

Official reticence concerning the movement of the Louisiana and New request for reinforcements Monday night and the two battleships were immediately ordered held in readiness to proceed. Yesterday after conferences between Secretary Lans ing and Rear-Admiral Benson, acting secretary of the navy, it was under stood the sailing of the ships would be delayed pending fuller reports from Yera Cruz and that if possible the sending of any considerable additional force would be avoided on ac count of the effect such a step might have upon work of the Pan-American conference, President Wilson a Cornish, N. H., was advised by tele phone of Commodore McNamee's re port and several hours later a long code dispatch reached the navy de partment from Cornish. Then it be came known that the ships had been instructed to start for Vera Cruz at Secretary Lansing, who left las night for New York to attend the Pan-American conference, would not movements further than to admit that a ship would be sent to replace one, which would bring the Brazilian and Guatematan ministers to the United States. He said that on account of continued bandit raids on the border, orders oon would be issued to increase the American military forces there, bu ally that neither this action nor any novements of ships had no bearing whatever upon the plans of the Pan-American conference.

As he left the state department Mr Lansing said he expected to be back at his desk tomorrow morning, "I we have good luck." President Wilson will be back in Washington in time to attend a cabinet meeting Friday, hich both the program of th Pan-American conference and the sit nation at Veza Cruz will be discussed. Secretary of the Navy Daniels started for Washington last night from Asheville, N. C.

Secretary Lansing said the increasng number of acts of brigandage on the border might necessitate streng thening the army forces there, but te insisted such an addition to the troops had no connection with internal Mexican affairs.

Vermont Branch of . Federation .in Session in Burlington.

Burlington, Aug. 10-Declaring that conditions are regarding wages and employment among the unorganized marble workers of Vermont are a disgrace to the fair name of the state, Fred R. Suitor of Barre, president of Vermont branch Federation of Labor, strongly urged the 50 delegates in 14th annual convention assembled here today to take off their coats and go to work for unionizing labor in Vermont. Among other things Mr. Suitor said:

"There is a great work to be done in the legislative field also before Vermont can be classed among the leading states for favorable labor legis lation the past two sessions of our state Legislature have, however, made more progress in this direction than all previous ones and we are led to believe had it not been for the de plorable situation in Barre last spring time while the Legislature was in sea sion, caused by an element losing their heads and being misled by some would-be progressives, but really reac tionaries, measures requested and worked for by organized labor might have received more favorable action.

Governor Gates and Mayor Drew welcomed the delegates.

The convention will adjourn on Thursday. A mass meeting was held at city hall tonight addressed by Mr. McCarthy, national organizer of the American Federation of Labor. A banquet will be held-at Hotel Sher-· wood tomorrow evening.
